

Saint Paul's @ the Farm

A United Church of Christ Community

Welcoming you on the 3rd Sunday after Pentecost

10:30 a.m. ~ June 14, 2026

Welcoming Saints and Sinners since 1900

Welcome to Saint Paul's @ The Farm! Here we believe this is God's house, a safe sacred space, and you are welcome. We hope this can be home to all who enter.

We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as we understand God's kingdom, welcoming saints and sinners alike since 1900. We don't all look or act alike, dress alike, and God knows we don't all think alike. We don't all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. Yet, every time we gather, we fellowship and worship as one big family who love one another.

In this place, we do Sunday mornings in some fairly traditional ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang and some that may be more modern as well. In our liturgy, our prayers, and our preaching, we wrestle with the challenges of understanding what scripture means to us this day. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant—a word of comfort, a spur to action, and a call to a deeper relationship with God.

If you are new here, before you leave today, please introduce yourself to Pastor Tim, and if you would, fill out a welcome card, found in the welcome envelope you received upon your arrival. Find us on Facebook and Instagram and check out our website at spuccfarm.org to learn more. Get involved in whatever way you choose. Jump right in. You may never know; you may have just found your church home. As we like to say to everyone who comes through the door, "Welcome Home."

A special note to parents: Come, sit in the front few rows—there's not much interesting about the backs of heads, and our littlest ones like to see too. We offer several options to help your family worship comfortably:

- ~ Staffed Nursery for newborns to three years of age, if you choose.
- ~ Children's Church immediately following "Time with Our Children" for ages 3 through 2nd grade.
- ~ Sensory Room for families with children who may need a quieter more flexible space during worship with professionally trained staff to assist in your childcare.

Here at The Farm, we believe all means all. Children of every ability and need are not just welcome—they are essential to who we are as a faith community. We find children to be truly the teachers and leaders among us, and we welcome them all with open arms. And we say to parents, please don't fret or worry, your child is just fine here.

Finally, if you are visiting and need anything at all, please don't hesitate to ask a neighbor, an usher, or the pastor. We are all so glad you are here!

Peace, Pastor Timothy Hogan-Palazzo

Chiming of the Hour

Choral Introit

"Celebration" / F. Frank

"You, you, you, you, you know what to do. It's time to put your phone down and raise your attitude. The God who made the birds, sea, sun, and the moon isn't somewhere far away, He is standin' in the room. So let it scream, let it shout, let 'em know what you're about. Keep it movin' and groovin' don't leave a single doubt that today is the day that the Lord has created. Why would I sit around just waitin'? Let's have a celebration. It's time to clap our hands and stomp our feet. Let's have a celebration. If you believe that Jesus set you free, it's time to celebrate, ate, ate, ate, ate, ate. Don't sit there waitin' let's have a celebration."

*Call to Worship

Sue Overdorf

Sue: Look around you this morning—at the daylight that fills the space around us, at the faces gathered here, at the very breath filling your lungs. All of it held by the mighty power of God.

Family: The same hands that flung stars into being are holding us right now.

Sue: And here's the wonder: those hands aren't clenched in judgment. They're open in welcome. Because of Jesus, we have peace with God—not a truce, but true peace.

Family: We stand here justified, loved, with full access to the Father's heart.

Sue: No fear. No shame.

Family: Just the steady assurance that we belong.

Sue: But peace isn't meant to make us comfortable. It's meant to make us compassionate. Jesus looked out at the world—at all the harassed and helpless, the wandering and wounded—and his heart broke with love.

Family: And he turns to us and says: Go. Heal. Serve. Proclaim good news.

Sue: The harvest is ready. The need is real. And you—yes, you—are called.

Family: It sounds impossible.

Sue: But listen: as you go, you won't go alone. Through every doubt, every stumble, every moment you wonder if you're enough—God whispers: "I'll be there." In the work. In the weariness. In the wonder of it all.

All: So, come. Let us worship the God who holds all things, who gives us peace, who sends us out, and who promises—always—to be there.
