Welcoming Saints and Sinners since 1900

Welcome to Saint Paul's @ The Farm! Here we believe this is God's house, a safe sacred space, and you are welcome. We hope this can be home to all who enter.

We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as we understand God's kingdom, welcoming saints and sinners alike since 1900. We don't all look or act alike, dress alike, and God knows we don't all think alike. We don't all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. Yet, every time we gather, we fellowship and worship as one big family who love one another.

In this place, we do Sunday mornings in some fairly traditional ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang and some that may be more modern as well. In our liturgy, our prayers, and our preaching, we wrestle with the challenges of understanding what scripture means to us this day. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant—a word of comfort, a spur to action, and a call to a deeper relationship with God.

If you are new here, before you leave today, please introduce yourself to Pastor Tim, and if you would, fill out a welcome card, found in the welcome envelope you received upon your arrival. Find us on Facebook and Instagram and check out our website at spuccfarm.org to learn more. Get involved in whatever way you choose. Jump right in. You may never know; you may have just found your church home. As we like to say to everyone who comes through the door, "Welcome Home."

A special note to parents: Come, sit in the front few rows—there's not much interesting about the backs of heads, and our littlest ones like to see too. We offer several options to help your family worship comfortably:

- ~ Staffed Nursery for newborns to three years of age, if you choose.
- ~ Children's Church immediately following "Time with Our Children" for ages 3 through 2nd grade.
- ~ Sensory Room for families with children who may need a quieter more flexible space during worship with professionally trained staff to assist in your childcare.

Here at The Farm, we believe all means all. Children of every ability and need are not just welcome—they are essential to who we are as a faith community. We find children to be truly the teachers and leaders among us, and we welcome them all with open arms. And we say to parents, please don't fret or worry, your child is just fine here.

Finally, if you are visiting and need anything at all, please don't hesitate to ask a neighbor, an usher, or the pastor. We are all so glad you are here!

Peace, Pastor Timothy Hogan-Palazzo

Kelly Kazibwe

Leader: We gather this morning as brethren—as brothers and sisters in faith. We come from different places, different stories, different struggles.

Family: But we come with one purpose: to worship the God who calls us to love.

Leader: Jesus said, “I chose you and appointed you so that you could go and produce fruit—and so that your fruit could last.”

Family: We wonder: What will our legacy be? What fruit are we bearing?

Leader: This is our recalculation. Not just today, but every day. We're asking: What do we want to be remembered for? How will we love? What will last?

All: We come to worship. We come to recalculate our journey. We come as a community to discover what it means to bear fruit that lasts and explore what will our legacy be?

Silent Reflection and Pastoral Prayer

Chancel Choir Anthem

“O Gentle Savior” / arr. C. McCartha

Pass me not, O gentle Savior, hear my humble cry. While on others You are calling, do not pass me by. Let me at Your throne of mercy, find a sweet relief; kneeling there in deep contrition, help my unbelief. Savior, Savior, hear my humble cry. While on others You are calling, do not pass me by. Trusting only in Your merit, I will seek Your face; heal my wounded, broken spirit, save me by Your grace. You're the Spring of all my comfort, more than life for me. Only You on earth I worship, Holy Prince of Peace. Savior, Savior, hear my humble cry; Savior, while on others You are calling, do not pass me by. Do not pass me by.
