Welcoming Saints and Sinners since 1900

Welcome to Saint Paul's @ The Farm! Here we believe this is God's house, a safe sacred space, and you are welcome. We hope this can be home to all who enter.

We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as we understand God's kingdom, welcoming saints and sinners alike since 1900. We don't all look or act alike, dress alike, and God knows we don't all think alike. We don't all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. Yet, every time we gather, we fellowship and worship as one big family who love one another.

In this place, we do Sunday mornings in some fairly traditional ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang and some that may be more modern as well. In our liturgy, our prayers, and our preaching, we wrestle with the challenges of understanding what scripture means to us this day. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant—a word of comfort, a spur to action, and a call to a deeper relationship with God.

If you are new here, before you leave today, please introduce yourself to Pastor Tim, and if you would, fill out a welcome card, found in the welcome envelope you received upon your arrival. Find us on Facebook and check out our website at spuccfarm.org to learn more. Get involved in whatever way you choose. Jump right in. You may never know; you may have just found your church home. As we like to say to everyone who comes through the door, "Welcome Home."

A special note to parents: Come, sit in the front few rows—there's not much interesting about the backs of heads, and our littlest ones like to see too. We offer several options to help your family worship comfortably:

- ~ Staffed Nursery for newborns to three years of age, if you choose.
- ~ Children's Church immediately following "Time with Our Children" for ages 3 through 2nd grade.
- ~ Sensory Room for families with children who may need a quieter more flexible space during worship with professionally trained staff to assist in your childcare.

Here at The Farm, we believe all means all. Children of every ability and need are not just welcome—they are essential to who we are as a faith community. We find children to be truly the teachers and leaders among us, and we welcome them all with open arms. And we say to parents, please don't fret or worry, your child is just fine here.

Finally, if you are visiting and need anything at all, please don't hesitate to ask a neighbor, an usher, or the pastor. We are all so glad you are here!

Peace, Pastor Timothy Hogan-Palazzo

*Call to Worship

Lisa Bernard

Leader: The wise men came from the East, following a star, carrying gifts for a newborn king.

Family: They brought gold, frankincense, and myrrh—treasures fit for royalty.

Leader: But what do we bring? We don't have gold or precious spices.

Family: We wonder if what we have to offer is enough.

Leader: Jesus said, "Whatever you do for the least of these—the hungry, the cold, the homeless, the stranger—you do for me."

Family: When we feed the hungry, we're bringing gifts to Jesus. When we clothe the cold, we're bringing gifts to Jesus. When we welcome the stranger, we're bringing gifts to Jesus.

Leader: Paul wrote about churches who gave generously even though they were poor. They gave not from their abundance, but from their love.

Family: They gave what they had, and it was enough.

Leader: So come—bring your time, your compassion, your service, your resources, your love.

Family: We may not have gold, but we have hands that can serve.

Leader: We may not have frankincense, but we have hearts that can love.

Family: We may not have myrrh, but we have lives that can be poured out for others.

All: Come, let us worship the King by giving what we have—ourselves, our service, our love—to a world in need!

God Moments & Concerns of the Family

Preparing Our Hearts for Prayer

“A Nativity Prayer” / P. Brooks

“O holy Child of Bethlehem! Descend to us, we pray;
Cast out our sin and enter in; be born in us today.”

Silent Reflection and Pastoral Prayer

“Sing We Now of Christmas” / arr. K. Pederson

Sing we now of Christmas, Noel here. Hearts in expectation, Noel drawing near. Sing we now of Christmas, sing we now Noel. In stillness lays the world in silent reverie, longing for the birth of love and mercy. Yearning for hope, good news to fill our souls; turning to the manger that grounds all mystery. Angels bending low, shepherds bend their knee, wisemen from the east, all have come the child to see. All of creation where love has come to swell; sing we now of Christmas, the good news that we tell. Sing Noel.
