

Saint Paul's @ the Farm

A United Church of Christ Community

Welcoming you on the Sixth Sunday of Easter

10:30 a.m. ~ May 10, 2026

Welcoming Saints and Sinners since 1900

Welcome to Saint Paul's @ The Farm! Here we believe this is God's house, a safe sacred space, and you are welcome. We hope this can be home to all who enter.

We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as we understand God's kingdom, welcoming saints and sinners alike since 1900. We don't all look or act alike, dress alike, and God knows we don't all think alike. We don't all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. Yet, every time we gather, we fellowship and worship as one big family who love one another.

In this place, we do Sunday mornings in some fairly traditional ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang and some that may be more modern as well. In our liturgy, our prayers, and our preaching, we wrestle with the challenges of understanding what scripture means to us this day. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant—a word of comfort, a spur to action, and a call to a deeper relationship with God.

If you are new here, before you leave today, please introduce yourself to Pastor Tim, and if you would, fill out a welcome card, found in the welcome envelope you received upon your arrival. Find us on Facebook and Instagram and check out our website at spuccfarm.org to learn more. Get involved in whatever way you choose. Jump right in. You may never know; you may have just found your church home. As we like to say to everyone who comes through the door, "Welcome Home."

A special note to parents: Come, sit in the front few rows—there's not much interesting about the backs of heads, and our littlest ones like to see too. We offer several options to help your family worship comfortably:

- ~ Staffed Nursery for newborns to three years of age, if you choose.
- ~ Children's Church immediately following "Time with Our Children" for ages 3 through 2nd grade.
- ~ Sensory Room for families with children who may need a quieter more flexible space during worship with professionally trained staff to assist in your childcare.

Here at The Farm, we believe all means all. Children of every ability and need are not just welcome—they are essential to who we are as a faith community. We find children to be truly the teachers and leaders among us, and we welcome them all with open arms. And we say to parents, please don't fret or worry, your child is just fine here.

Finally, if you are visiting and need anything at all, please don't hesitate to ask a neighbor, an usher, or the pastor. We are all so glad you are here!

Peace, Pastor Timothy Hogan-Palazzo

Niki Weber

Niki: We gather today as people with a story.

Family: We come ready to tell our story—how Jesus has shaped us, changed us, called us.

Niki: Maybe, too, we can relate to one another’s stories.

Family: Maybe that’s the way Jesus assures us we are not alone.

Niki: We gather to remember, to witness, to be transformed.

Family: Tell us the story of Jesus—

All: and help us tell our own.

Chancel Choir Anthem

“All My Trials” / arr. J. Leavitt

If religion were a thing that money could buy, the rich would live and the poor would die.

All my trials, Lord, soon be over. I had a little book was given to me, and ev’ry page spelled liberty, spelled liberty. All my trials, Lord, soon be over. Too late my brother, but never mind. All my trials, Lord, soon be over. So hush little baby, don’t you cry, you know that man was born to die.

All my trials, Lord, soon be over.
